1. Cooperating NGO

Cooperating NGO is a non-profit organization whose objective is to carry out international cooperation projects, contributing to the comprehensive and sustainable development of communities in different developing countries.

To fulfil these objectives, the following activities are carried out:

1. Promotion of awareness regarding the diverse realities of various cultures through presentations, events, or access to the media.
2. Fundraising efforts in both the public and private sectors, including presentations for public subsidies or collaborations with private entities to secure the necessary resources for project implementation.
3. Technical assistance, execution and evaluation of projects directly or in collaboration with local entities from the various countries where work will be carried out.

Mission and vision

- Mission: Foster well-being in developing countries by providing economic support to local social organizations for the implementation of sustainable projects in the fields of education and health.
- Vision: Realize empowered communities where all individuals experience complete equality and have equal opportunities.
